

On Thursday, Dr. Sean P. McBride, Assistant Professor in Physics and Sara Simpson, Academic Advisor for the College of Science teamed up to represent the Physics Department and College of Science at Cabell Midland High School for their S.T.E.A.M. FAMILY FUN KNIGHT! Fun was had by all!

The 1st annual Agriscience and S.T.E.M. Academy

S.T.E.A.M. FAMILY FUN KNIGHT

@ Cabell Midland High School

A community event open to students of all ages and their families!
Science.Technology.Engineering.Art.Mathematics.

Interactive S.T.E.A.M. Activities!

Led by AP Computer Science students

Seats are limited for these activities. Any remaining tickets will be available on a first come first-served basis at the door.

S.T.E.M. Technology Exhibits

- DRONES
- 3-D PRINTERS
- VEX ROBOTS
- ROCKETS
- FLIGHT SIMULATORS

Register online:

<https://bit.ly/2pG8HmL>

QR code:

Registration is FREE!

- ARTBOTS
- Binary Bracelets
- Spaghetti Architecture
- STEAM Funk
- Veg-tricity
- Hour of Code: Minecraft
- Turtle_time
- Lava Lamps
- ...And more!

S.T.E.M. + ART = S.T.E.A.M.

Art work created during this event by attendees will be displayed during the Village Art Walk in Barboursville April 26 @ 6-8pm.

Interested in a S.T.E.M. Career?

Several Colleges from Marshall University, programs from Mountwest Community and Technical College, and the Civil Air Patrol will be available to provide information about S.T.E.M. careers and the education needed to get there.

/M&K/ ART GALLERY & COMMUNITY STUDIO

Thursday, April 12th

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Enter the entrance by the Gym

For more information contact: Bekka Atkins @ 304-743-7411 Email: ratkins@k12.wv.us

